PREAMBLE

Quick and effective communication among stake holders is essential for progress of any organisation. NIT Rourkela is no exception. Students, faculty, supporting staff need to communicate among themselves and with persons outside the institute-other organisations, alumni, parents of students, prospective students and employees, Government officials and public. A smart and comprehensive communication system consisting of letter mail, e-mail, telephone, fax and mobiles is essential. The quality of this system is the hallmark of a great institution.

NIT Rourkela, a premier engineering Institute of our country has established an extensive and efficient communication infrastructure. We have set up high speed campus-wide computer networks which can be reached from every Lab, hostel room or residential quarters. To use this facility effectively, we need a directory of telephone numbers and email addresses which is widely available. It is our pleasure to present to the NITR community to sister institutions and to public at large this “Communication Handbook” which provides physical and electronic addresses of every one in campus. We have also tried to supplement this booklet with other frequently-used contacts for the benefits of the NITR community.

It is our earnest hope that the new directory will be helpful to all users. In addition to making a phone call or sending an email, users are requested to use the special features of our telephone and email systems. In case of any difficulty, please do not hesitate to call Mrs. K. P. Dasmohapatra at the Telephone Exchange or the System Administrator in the Computer Centre.

Many individuals have contributed to the creation of this document. We record our appreciation of the meticulous work put in by Mr. R.K. Sahoo, Engineer and the aesthetic layout created by Sri Raghunath Nayak.

COMPUTER TIPS TO ALL NITIANS

USE

Symantec™

ANTIVIRUS

PROTECT YOUR COMPUTER : SAVE OUR NETWORK

MYTHS

I do not need an anti-virus software; I am careful.

Only pirated anti-virus software work; not licensed ones.

Aids can be prevented by a dip in the holy Ganges.

REALITIES

Every user of our network needs an updated anti-virus software and much more.

Cheaters (in exams) do not become toppers.

Such concepts have brought a section of our society to the brink of disaster.
