TENDER FOR RUNNING OF THE INSTITUTE GUEST HOUSE

(SOUTH OR/AND NORTH BLOCK)

National Institute of Technology Rourkela is a premier technical Institute in the country with undergraduate, post-graduate and research programs in many branches of science and engineering. The campus of the Institute extends to an area of 262 hectares of land. With many topographical features, imaginatively laid out with picturesque landscape, numerous buildings of various nature and stature, and clean and wide roads, the campus presents a spectacle of harmony in architecture and natural beauty. The campus has a guest house having two blocks i.e, North Block and South Block in an imposing double storied building located near Director's bungalow. The Guest House has a homely atmosphere and ambiance traditionally acclaimed for its environs of hygiene and food of homely relish and richness. The guest house serves to render hospitality to the guests and delegates, officials and visitors who visit the campus. North Block of guest house has 20 rooms and South Block has 30 rooms with modern amenities such as central air conditioning, TV, Internet facility etc. in each room. Interested agencies/firms/Stewards are invited to submit their proposal for maintenance of the Institute Guest House (South or North Block) under following terms and conditions.

In case of individuals taking meals in the guest house prior permission is not necessary.
 - (e) The Steward will provide all consumables in the kitchen like raw materials, cooking gas cylinders. The institute shall provide all cooking equipment/ modernized kitchen amenities for use in the kitchen of the guest house. However the steward shall be solely responsible for careful use and upkeep of all such equipment in proper working condition at all times. The steward shall submit a monthly status report of all equipment installed in the Kitchen and guest house premises including the DG set and AC plant to the Professor in charge guest house with every monthly bill. The steward has to handover them in good and proper working condition at termination of the contract. The Steward shall have to pay for the repair and maintenance of the Equipment, kitchen and dining hall for the damage caused due to rough/negligent use.

- (f) The institute shall provide all crockery items to be used inside the kitchen and dining area of the guest house at the beginning of the contract. The steward shall maintain them in good condition at all times and replace all broken/misplaced items with equal quality of the product throughout the contract period. Any damage due to breakage/rough/negligent use shall be borne by the steward at his own cost till expiry of the contract and all materials to be handed over as per list available in Guest House stock register to the PIC (Guest house) at termination of the contract. The alternative brand must be certified by the institute before replacement. In case of any default by the steward/complaint by the users the institute shall be entitled to replace the loss at the cost of the steward and levy a service charge of 200% over the cost.
 - (g) Normally other caterers will not be permitted to serve food in Guest house dining hall or in the premises of the guest house. In case, If other caterers are permitted by the institute authorities to serve food in Guest House(either North Block or South Block) the Steward shall cooperate with outside caterers to ensure proper treatment to guests.
20. The Steward's employees should be free from any contagious disease or sickness that is considered unacceptable for handling food. In such case the steward should give them leave or arrange treatment as deemed fit and should make alternative arrangement at his cost. Whatever circumstance it may be the caterer must ensure that the facility is not hampered.
 21. The Steward shall be solely responsible to provide safe and hygienic food to the customers at all times. Only authorized brands of products as approved by the institute can be used to ensure quality. A committee appointed by the Institute will monitor the same including quality/brand of input material and hygiene. Persons authorized by the Institute must have full access to all facilities and documents. Any preparation not found to be wholesome or hygienic is liable to be rejected without any compensation. Further punitive action, as deemed fit shall be taken against the steward.
 22. Only purified water (purified by Aquaguard/RO purifiers of reputed brands or other purifier of similar standard) has to be served in the guest house. The institute has installed water purification machines inside the guest house. However the steward shall maintain them at his own cost under AMC/ by his own technical person. The steward must ensure to serve clean drinking water to all guests at all times and any default shall lead to penalty as deemed fit.

 26. The assets and articles provided by the Institute shall be property of the Institute and the Steward shall be merely the custodian of such assets and articles. On termination of the Steward, all such property shall be handed over to the Institute in good condition.

27. The Caterer shall maintain the building space and rooms in top condition. All floors and rooms are to be scrubbed regularly with non-corrosive detergent or soap, and all vertical surfaces are to be dusted regularly. The period of cleaning should be such that there is no visible dirt or marks at any time. In case of deficiency the Institute administration shall levy fine or terminate the contract with immediate effect.
28. The cost of food items to be served in the guest house shall be fixed and approved by the Institute after mutual discussion with the steward. Any change to the price can only be done with prior approval of the Institute.
29. The cost towards preparation of food item must include the cost of raw materials, labour cost(i.e. cook and other supporting staff engaged for cooking) and other fixed costs which shall only be payable by the customers (except approved Institute guests) of the Steward. Food cost and chart will be same for both the guest houses and the same would be approved by the Institute. The Institute shall not entertain any claim towards food or food preparation related expenses incurred by the steward. Further the Steward is advised to avoid any credit to the customers and debt from the raw material suppliers or any other related supplier from outside. In case of any default the Institute shall not be liable for any such fraudulent acts of the steward. In case the Steward happens to be proven at debt by the suppliers, the Institute shall have the authority to take punitive action against the Steward as deemed fit and all payable claim and security deposit shall be forfeited.
30. The Steward and his employees shall always be treated as "LICENCEE" and Institute as "LICENSOR". As such, the Steward and / or his employees shall be bound to vacate the premises or shall be treated as intruders or unauthorized persons on the termination of the agreement. The NIT authority reserves the right for overall supervision of the guest house as principal employer.
31. Deficiency in Service: The institute authorities shall inspect the facility from time to time to assess the performance of the steward. If any deficiency in service is observed, the inspecting personnel may assess the value of the deficiency and recommend appropriate financial adjustment in the monthly bill. Such adjustment will typically be twice the value of the deficiency to account for the administrative cost and hardship to the users. The cost of the deficiency shall include not only the saving to the steward in materials, equipment usage and personnel, but also the consequence of poor performance by contractor's personnel and of poor supervision. In case of dispute in assessment, the decision of Director, NIT.
32. The steward shall refrain from significant subcontracting of the task. If it is proposed to sub-contract a part of the operation, it can only be done with consent of Director, NIT, Rourkela.
33. The Steward shall not perform any act that would violate the statutory obligations laid down by the competent authorities. Further he is advised to act in a disciplined way and should avoid any mishap or misconduct that would pose negative impact on the fame and reputation of this esteemed organization. In case the Steward is found to be involved in any type of malafide conducts; the contract shall be terminated with immediate effect without any compensation and further action as deemed fit shall be taken. The security deposits shall be forfeited.
34. Manager/Staff Substitution: During an assignment, if substitution is necessary (for example because of ill health or because a staff member proves to be unsuitable, or the member is no longer working with the firm) the firm shall propose of other staff of at least the same level of qualifications for approval of the competent authority of the Institute. All payments to staff to be engaged by the Firm under the contract are to be transacted through Bank only and the copy of the same must be attached with the monthly bill. The manager guest house shall ensure the same. Names and other personal details of the personnel to be employed by the Firm / Agency under the contract have to be submitted and approved by the Institute.

C. STATUTORY OBLIGATION:
